

Resilience of societies in the context of multiple crises

Monday, 18 November 2024 - Friday, 22 November 2024

1 Dicembre 1918 University of Alba Iulia

Scientific Programme

O1:

Familiarization of students with the concepts of social development, local development and community development.

O2:

Introduction to the theories of social development. Familiarization of students with the paradigms of social development- Focused on the Functionalist Paradigm –according to Emery, Flora, (2006): the seven broad categories of resources that contribute to the transformation of communities.

O3:

To understand the relationship between the community and its environment and the role of nature and culture as tools for community transformation and adaptation to the effects of various crises.

O4:

To learn to use the advocacy campaign as a tool to influence public decision in order to increase the capacity of communities to adapt to the effects of multiple crises.

O5:

To explore how communities can develop and maintain resilience in the context of foreign investments, addressing both the challenges and opportunities that arise.